

ORGANICALLY DELICIOUS

Transparently Delicious®

PRODUCT HIGHLIGHT

Flavor Producers has decades of expertise in organic sourcing, regulatory and flavor creation allows us to create delicious custom organic flavors for you faster.

ORGANIC TO THE CORE

Flavor Producers is firmly rooted in organic flavor creation and has established one of the industry's largest libraries of certified flavors from our extensive organic certifiable flavor portfolio. Our organic solutions are backed with a rigorous quality and regulatory process that ensures your product not only tastes great but complies with the latest 2019 updated regulations in North America. Organic Certified flavors are required in all organic food and beverage products unless the flavor is not commercially available as organic.

CURATORS OF TASTE

Recognizing an emerging consumer demand for organic options, our current head of technology successfully petitioned the National Organic Standards Board in 1995 to establish flavors as an organic option. This action established the extensive portfolio of over 5000 certifiable organic flavors that we offer customers today.

A GARDEN OF OPTIONS

Our leadership has long held the belief that natural and organic would be the future of flavors. Directing our team to create flavors that support this evolving consumer benefit established our innovative leadership well before the trend was mainstream.

ORGANIC MANUFACTURING

Our U.S. manufacturing facilities are organically certified by USDA-accredited agents and are strategically located to provide convenient and fast service to accommodate your organic needs.

REGULATORY YOU CAN TRUST

Every organic flavor produced at Flavor Producers goes through a strict regulatory review process by a team of regulatory experts with years of experience navigating the organic certification process.

TASTES THE WORLD

With decades of cultivating strong relationships with organic ingredient suppliers under our belt, we have developed a reliable ingredient network with the ability to source unique and exotic ingredients from all across the globe. Our sourcing prowess puts the best organic flavor ingredients at our flavorists' fingertips, and in return gives you the ability to truly taste the flavors of the world.
